SIDE-BY-SIDE WE STAND WITH PRIDE

Newsletter of the Enlisted Association of the National Guard of the United States Auxiliary

Volume 40, Issue 2

October 2011

It is with a sad heart that I am informing all of you that Dorrie Hagan lost her life on Oct 18, 2011 in a single car accident in Montana. Her husband, Roger Hagan is our EANGUS President. Please keep Roger, their children, grandchildren, family, and friends in your prayers. Dorrie was a Life Member of our EANGUS Auxiliary. I had an opportunity to talk with her in Charleston at the conference. We talked about the importance of the Auxiliary. We shared so much laughter and this I will always remember. We all have lost loved ones and it is never easy, but God is always there for us to lean on. I want to encourage all of you to contribute to the We Care for America fund as a tribute to Dorrie. Put "for Dorrie" in the memo on your check and send to: EANGUS WCFA 3133 Mount Vernon Ave. Alexandria, VA 22305.

I will be attending the 375th National Guard Ball on Nov. 8th at the Gaylord Hotel and Convention Center in Maryland and looking forward to seeing many of you there. The EANGUS Executive Council Meeting will be held in Alexandria, VA Nov 9th and 10th. I will be attending and representing the Auxiliary with pride as always. I will have a lot of information in the Nov. Signal.

Remember to always thank our Veterans and with a special remembrance on Nov 11th, Veterans Day.

God Bless you and your families,

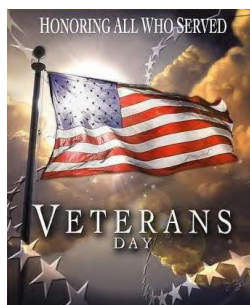

Jenny Lainhart

The House of Representatives Passes Two Veterans Bills Vital to Members of the National Guard, H.R. 2433 and H.R. 1025

WASHINGTON DC (Oct. 12, 2011) – Under suspension of the rules, the House of Representatives finished consideration of six veterans related bills on the evening of October 11th. These bills included H.R. 2433, the Veterans Opportunity to Work (VOW) Act championed by Veterans’ Affairs Committee Chairman Congressman Jeff Miller, and H.R. 1025 Veterans Status for Title 32 Guardsmen. Both pieces of legislation have been endorsed by the Enlisted Association of the National Guard of the United States. In addition, EANGUS Executive Director Al Garver testified in favor of H.R. 1025 in early July.

The VOW Act will create the most qualified, skilled workforce since World War II by providing veterans with training benefits, ensure all transitioning service members have access to a 21st Century Transition Assistance Program (TAP), move toward a uniform credentialing and licensing standard for personnel transitioning to civilian jobs, and strengthen the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act for National Guard and Reserve.

“The objective of the VOW Act is to use a comprehensive approach to help a broad cross-section of veterans obtain or retain meaningful employment, but to do so in a fiscally responsible manner that doesn’t create permanent new programs,” stated Rep. Jeff Miller, Chairman of the House Committee on Veterans’ Affairs.

Sponsored by the most senior enlisted guardsmen ever to serve in Congress, Representative Tim Walz, H.R. 1025, the Honor America’s Guard-Reserve Retirees Act of 2011, will amend Title 38, to recognize the service in the reserve components of certain persons by honoring them with status as veterans under law.

It may come as surprise to most that a Guardsman, who serves twenty years in uniform, is not automatically considered a veteran. Currently, if members of the National Guard and Reserve have not served a qualifying period of active duty service, they are not considered to be veterans under Federal law. Just one of the requirements barring many Title 32 Guardsmen from being recognized as veterans is that they did not serve at least 180 continuous days on federal status.

House passage lines up these bills for consideration by the Senate, hopefully in time for Veterans Day on November 11th. EANGUS looks forward to working with members of the Senate in order to pass both bills. As always, the membership of EANGUS is vital to ensuring that such legislation is not only brought to the attention of their elected officials, but also passed into to law in a timely manner.

Contact your Senators ask them to support S. 491 (H.R. 1025) and S. 951 (H.R. 2433)

NEWS FROM YOUR CONSTITUTION/SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

The Constitution Committee (acting as facilitator) along with the Scholarship Committee will be working on bringing any and all issues concerning the EANGUS Auxiliary Scholarship Application to resolution.

Now is the time for any input that any State has, to be submitted through their Area Chair to Richard A. Bryant, EANGUS Auxiliary Constitution Chair, 47 Bataan Blvd, Santa Fe, NM 87508-4695, and to H. Marie Brabham, EANGUS Auxiliary Scholarship Chair, 3329 Aspen Forest Drive, Middleburg, FL 32068.

When recommendations are submitted, please provide written justification to support your recommendations/comments.

There will be an update/status provided in The Signal each month, everyone is encouraged to follow along. There will also be a cutoff date for receiving recommendations/comments announced in one of the future issues of The Signal.

Recovering Soldier Makes A Visit Home

Journal Staff Report

Army Spc. James M. Thorne, the son of retired New Mexico National Guard Command Sgt. Maj. Richard Bryant and current Battalion Command Sgt. Maj. Liz Bryant, was welcomed home by family and friends on Sunday at the Albuquerque International Sunport.

Bryant, 23, was severely injured by an improvised bomb Oct. 8, 2010, while serving with the Army's 101st Airborne Division in Afghanistan. Bryant was on patrol and stepped on an IED.

The specialist, whose hometown is Glorieta, is assigned to the Warrior Transition Battalion at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, where he has been recovering from his injuries. He will be home for two weeks before returning to Fort Sam Houston.

The welcome ceremony was organized by Blue Star Mothers of New Mexico, a nonprofit made up of mothers who now have, or have had, children serving in the military.

California EANGUS met at Travis Air Force Base in September for their Fall meeting. They are working diligently preparing for our National Conference in Long Beach. The Auxiliary arrived a day early to work on the 2 quilts they are making from our Conference Tee Shirts that we have enjoyed over the last 2 decades. The quilts will be ready for raffle soon and tickets will be available. The winning tickets will be drawn in Long Beach. Pictured are Dorothy Inglese, Doris O'Connell and Marsha Stark.
