

Giles Sutherland Rich Memorial Scholarship

William S. Bullinger Scholarship

An award of $10,000, in memory of Giles S. Rich, Circuit Judge, United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, will be given by the Federal Circuit Bar Association to a law student showing financial need and demonstrated academic promise, either in undergraduate studies or in law school.

Selection for the award will be based primarily on a written submission of no more than one page setting out the applicant's financial need, any interests in particular areas of the law, and any qualifications for the award considered relevant by the applicant.

Submissions must be transmitted in PDF format only by email to kcasey@stradley.com. Please identify each submission by "FCBA Scholarship Submission" in the "Subject" line. Unfortunately, FCBA cannot process applications that are incomplete when first received. Nor will the association contact an individual noting deficiencies in the application because the volume of applications is robust.

The submission should also include all of the applicant's college and law school transcripts, and a one-page curriculum vitae. All of the submitted materials will be considered, and prior academic performance will not be the primary criteria for selection.

Only one Giles S. Rich Scholarship is awarded each year. In addition, depending on funds available and other factors, FCBA may also consider awarding other scholarships based primarily on need. These latter scholarships are awarded in the memory of William S. Bullinger, a respected practitioner who tirelessly advanced the association's encouragement of professionalism, civility in practice, and dialogue between Bench and Bar. Last year, we were able to award five of these additional scholarships in the amount of $5,000 each. We hope to be able to be as generous this year.

Deadline for submission: April 30, 2008
